After Short Illness

Came to Newark With His Father Seventy-One Years Ago and Has Been Identified With

Captain James H. Smith, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of Licking county, died Friday night at 9:15 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks with heart trouble, at though he had been in failing health for the past two years. Captain Smith was president of the board of directors of the Licking County Infirmary, and attended the regular session of the board, held at the infirmary on the 31st of January and the first of February, where he was taken seriously sick. He was unable to be moved, but received the best of care and attention. He gradually grew worse until Friday night when death ended his sufferings. The body was brought to Newark and taken to the undertaking rooms of James McGonagle, where they were prepared for interment.

The funeral services will be held at the St. Paul's Lutheran church on First street on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Weeter, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers will be the County Commissioners, consisting of A. T. Jury, John Lambert and John Graham, and Infirmary Directors Samuel Hankinson and A. Norris and Superintendent Ira Majors.

The funeral will be under the auspices of Lemert Post, No. 71, G. A. R. The deceased is survived by two married daughters, Kate and Emma, who live in the east, and one brother, Charles Smith of Springfield, Ill., besides numerous relatives in Newark and Licking county.

The remains of Captain Smith have been taken to the home of Dr. J. W. Alexander, 103 North Fourth street, where they will lie in state until Sunday afternoon, when they will be taken to the St. Paul's Lutheran church where the funeral services will be held.

Captain James Harvey Smith was born in Nassau, Rensselaer county, N. Y., July 26, 1822, and was consequently in the 85th year of his age when he died. He was the eighth son of Jesse Smith, Sr., of Richfield Conn., and Samantha Barnum of Danbury, Conn. His father emigrated to Ohio some seventy-one years ago. They came by way of the Ohio canal on a packet boat, arriving in Newark on June 10, 1827, and from that time until the present, a period of seventy-one years, Captain Smith has been almost constantly a resident of Newark. There were ten sons and four daughters in his father's family, and there is only one brother surviving, Mr. Charles Smith, a resident of Springfield, Ill. Mr. Smith was married about 1850 to Miss Angelina Phelps, a sister of Mr. Gilson Phelps, of this city. Two daughters were the fruit of this union, Kate and Emma Smith, who are married and live in the east. Mr. Smith was engaged in various business enterprises in this city, being in the real estate and insurance business at different times, and for a number of years he was connected with the Bazaar and Confectionery on the North Side. He was always a very active, bustling man in all the different relations of life, in business, in social life or any of the organizations or enterprises with which he was connected. Up to within two or three years, although upwards of 80 years old, Captain Smith was as bright and active in everything he undertook as the average man of 50 or 60.

Captain Smith was the hero of two wars, having served with distinction in the Mexican war and through the civil war, being a veteran of both wars. Of late years he has taken an active interest in all matters connected with the veteran associations of both wars, and was for many years secretary of the Ohio State Association of Veterans of the Mexican War, and was a prominent member of Lemert Post, No. 71, G. A. R., of this city. His death leaves only two surviving Mexican War Veterans in Licking county, Daniel, Darlington and Leonard Stelzer.

At different periods of his life, Captain Smith held various offices of public trust. For some time past he has been a member of the Licking County Soldiers' Relief Commission, and at the time of this death was also one of the directors of the Licking County Infirmary. He was identified with the First Presbyterian church of this city and for many years served in the capacity of usher. He was also secretary of the Licking County Pioneer Society. He was a public spirited man and a good citizen. He was

POSSIBLE ACTION AGAINST MORSE MR. THOMAS MAY BE WITNESS

New York, Feb. 15.—Regarding possible criminal action against Charles W. Morse, it was intimated that E. H. Thomas, who has been familiar with many of Morse's banking transactions, was willing to give to District Attorney Jerome the benefit of this "inside information." A conference held in Mr. Jerome's office that was attended by Mr. Thomas and an army of counsel lent color to this report.

Mr. Thomas is said to have laid before Mr. Jerome the facts concerning a loan of $50,000 made by the Na-kind hearted and very fond of children, and of late years generally carried a sack of candy to distribute among the little ones. He will be greatly missed, as he has been a landmark for many years. He was always genial and affable, no matter where or when you met him.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FATEFUL EXPLOSION IN HAVANA HARBOR WHERE 266 LIVES WERE LOST.

"Remember the Maine" Will be Signal Displayed Off Over World by American Ships.

Washington, Feb. 15.—"Remember the Maine" will be displayed as a signal by Admiral Evans on board the Connecticut today, as his fleet sails up the west coast of South America and flags on each of the battleships will be dropped to half-mast.

In the Philippines, on the Chinese coast, in Central American waters, at the various navy yards in the United States, every where American vessels lie at anchor or sail the seas, similar silent tribute will be paid to the memory of 266 sailors who lost their lives in the fateful explosion in Havana Harbor just 10 years ago today.

BREECHES BUOY

Saves Eleven Men From Drowning off Long Island Today—Hauled Ashore.

Eastport, L. I. Feb. 15.—Only a breeches buoy saved 11 men from death in the sea when the three masted schooner, Howard E. Peck, was driven ashore west of Quogue life saving station early today. Lines were shot aboard the wrecked vessel and Captain Dood and 10 men of his crew were hauled ashore through the terrifying surf which almost battered out their lives.

NAVIGATION

Of Canals and streams Will be Hampered if Water Power Concessions are Granted.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The navigation of the Erie and Welland canals and many important streams flowing into the Great Lakes from both American and Canadian territory will be seriously interfered with if further proposed concessions for water power from the Niagara river, either above or below the falls are granted. This is the startling information which Dr. Rivers and his commission of the Winthrop Spencer will lay before the House at its hearing on the water power bills on Monday.

RECEIVER TAKES CHARGE.

INHABITANTS MOVING

Allegheny Has Passed
Twenty Foot Mark and Still Rising

Warning Sent Ohio Cities to Prepare for Flood Stage by Monday.

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—Pittsburg is preparing for one of the worst floods in its history. Forecaster Pennwalt issued a warning today that Monongahela and Allegheny rivers would reach 20 feet by tomorrow morning. Both rivers are rising at the rate of one foot and one-third an hour and both have passed the 20-foot mark. Twenty-two feet is the flood stage.

Merchants and residents along the river fronts are moving their wares and household goods to safety. The Allegheny river has risen nearly five feet in two hours. Flood stages were reported this morning at Johnstown, Saltsburg, and Freeport. Warnings have been sent to Wheeling and Steubenville, O., to prepare for 43 feet of water by Monday.

MIAMI STILL RAISING.

Hamilton, O., Feb. 15.—With the Miami river still rising, Hamilton and Butler counties are facing a dangerous situation today. Residents of Peck's addition failed to heed orders from the police last night to move. As a result more than a score of families are imprisoned in houses half filled with water. In some instances the occupants have taken refuge on the roofs. A majority of the members of these families are afflicted with smallpox and no one will take the risk of rescuing them.

In Hamilton, a portion of Washington, Hanover, A. V. and South Front streets are under water. The villages of Oblihgins and Coke Otto are under water. Residents of these places had hair raising experiences and exciting rescues. The water flooded the villages while the inhabitants were asleep. People awoke to find themselves floating around their rooms in their beds. A portion of Busenbarks is under water. At Somerville the flood rushed through the town and families were forced to move last night. Charles Koppe, of Somerville, lost 100 hogs. The tracks of the Cincinnati Northern traction line are under water. Traffic has been entirely abandoned.

OHIO RIVER RISING.

Cincinnati, Feb. 15.—The Ohio river is rising here at the rate of a foot an hour. The weather forecaster believes this means a 50 foot stage by Tuesday.

THE SCIOTO RISING.

Columbus, Feb. 15.—The Scioto river rose rapidly Friday night and is still rising. At Springfield, Buck creek is higher than in many years. No street cars are running. Four hundred families have been driven from their homes.

RIVER OUT OF BANKS.

ANOTHER AMERICAN DUCHESS

MISS THEODORA SHONTS.

New York, Feb. 15.—America added another to her list of duchesses today when Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of Theodore P. Shonts, head of the Interborough Railroad company, and former chief of the Panama canal commission, became the bride of the Duke De Chaulnes. The ceremony was performed at the Shonts residence by Mgr. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The wedding is the culmination of a somewhat romantic courtship, marked by the persistence of Duc De Chaulnes in face of the numerous denials that he would be allowed to marry an American girl. It was only after a year's probation, in which the foreign suitor proved himself worthy, that Shonts gave his consent. Several of Duc De Chaulnes' titled relatives from abroad were among the guests. Duc and Duchess De Chaulnes will spend their honeymoon in Florida.

ATTORNEY GENERAL ELLIS BRINGS SUITS FOR THE COLLECTION OF WILLIS TAX

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—Attorney General Wade H. Ellis struck a blow Saturday at what he believes to be the iniquity of leasing and holding companies in operation of public utilities, by filing suits in Columbus, Cincinnati and Cleveland for sums aggregating $1,316,170.93 in Willis taxes, against public service corporations which do not operate their own lines of railroad. The companies sued are as follows: Cincinnati Street Railway company, $229,750.

Columbus Railway company, $218,260; Forest City Railway company, Cleveland, $26,135; Cleveland and Pittsburg Railway company, $317,344.68; Little Miami Railway company, Cincinnati, $208,858.25; Baltimore & Ohio Southern Railway company, $195,780. These companies all lease their roads to operating companies. The operating companies have been paying the Willis tax of one-tenth of one per cent of their capital stock, but the underlying companies have not been paying the tax.

BATTLESHIP SQUADRON BEHIND SCHEDULE

Valparaiso, Feb. 15.—Yesterday's display by the American battleship squadron in Valparaiso Harbor has rendered it impossible for Admiral Evans to make up the two days lost by the fleet at Punta Arenas and the fleet will be behind its schedule during all the rest of the voyage to the California coast. The squadron swung into the harbor in single file, passed around the water front in a wide semi-circle and steamed out to sea at about ten miles an hour. The crews lined the rails, the marines formed forward, the full uniformed officers thronged the bridges and the bands playing unceasingly as the ships swept through the harbor.

Salutes of 21 guns were exchanged as the craft passed, first the harbor forts and later the training ship, General Bagedano, from which the president viewed the parade.

The Chilean cruiser Chacabuco and three destroyers, which escorted the United States squadron to port, dropped out of line here and the American vessels went on alone.

CONFIRMATION LACKING OF SHAH'S ASSASSINATION

London, Feb. 15.—Confirmation is still lacking of last night's reports that the Shah of Persia has been assassinated. Communication with Tehran is always unreliable and it is quite likely that the Persian government might wish to delay circulation of such news as long as possible. That it should be able to suppress it for any number of hours, however, seems most improbable.

At no capital in Europe have dispatches coming from the rumored tragedy been received.

The only thing which seemed to give an air of probability to the rumor is the prolonged wrangling between the Persian reactionaries and liberals, the recent disorders at Isfahan, Persian cities and the Shah's apparent disposition to undo the work of his predecessor toward liberalizing the government.

Tornado in Southern States

TOWNS ARE DEVASTATED

Number of Them are in Short Time

Creeks Have Risen and Bridges are Swept Away—Work of Rescue.

St. Louis, Feb. 15.—Tornadoes involving the destruction of towns and the loss of life swept Mississippi and Texas Friday. The storm struck Tyler, Texas at 4 o'clock in the morning and left a trail of death and devastation.

A tornado which raged in Jones county, Mississippi, destroyed the town of Mossville and the only structure left standing in the place is the depot of the M. J. and K. C. R. R. The town has a population of 500.

Survivors who reached Hattiesburg, Miss., say that at least a dozen persons have been killed, all negroes, but that the actual loss of life will not be known until the wreckage has been cleared. Rescuing parties have been dispatched from Hattiesburg and Mossville. Two children at service near Laurel, Miss., have been killed.

Rumors were current for a time that Galveston, Texas, had again met with disaster. This was due to the fact that communication by wire had been cut off from that place for a while, but last evening it was learned that the town is safe, though it had been visited by the storm.

TOWNS DEMOLISHED.

Meridian, Miss., Feb. 15.—Three small Mississippi towns were practically demolished by a tornado Friday. Reports of the number killed range from 6 to 10, with the smaller number probably correct.

Mossville, Service and Soso are the towns destroyed. The tornado struck them about noon and in most instances is reported to have carried the buildings in its path completely off the lots on which they stood. Nearby fields were covered with wreckage, and the branches of trees were littered with small household articles.

L. S. Norrison, a resident of Mossville, who came here after the storm, said that he was outdoors during the blow and was compelled to grasp a wire fence to keep from being blown away. He said the dead at Mossville are Alice Windham and wife, negroes. Near the town he said, four white persons had been killed, a man and wife and their two children, whose names he did not learn.

The tornado was accompanied by a torrent of rain, which caused a sudden rise in the creeks and washed away several bridges. Roads have become impassable in the cyclone district, and telegraph and telephone wires were not working last night.

12 KILLED, 40 INJURED.

Tyler, Tex., Feb. 15.—Tyler was swept by the most disastrous tornado in its history yesterday. Coming up from the southwest, the storm swept over the main residence section of the city, leaving a trail of death and devastation.

The known dead in Tyler at this hour number four. C. A. Francis, 28, agent Dallas News, wife and one-year-old child, and a negro named Moses Lee, 80 years old.

Francis' body was found 100 yards from his wrecked home and the body of his child was found in the street. Mrs. Francis was in the wreckage of the building.

Six seriously injured had been reported at noon. It is expected that the death list in Tyler will reach 12 and the number of injured two score or more.

Twelve buildings were wrecked and in the confusion which exists it is difficult to compile an accurate list of the casualties. Wires are down in all directions but reports from farmers are not hastening in to ascertain the extent of the damage, are to the effect that farmhouses around Tyler were blown down.

It is impossible to ascertain the loss of life or to approximate the extent of the disaster. It is known, however, that the tornado swept everything clean for a distance of five miles.

WEDDINGS

SHIRER-STANTON.
One of the prettiest weddings of the midwinter season took place on Wednesday evening at the Second Presbyterian church, when the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stanton, Etta Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. Roy Shirey by Rev. T. A. Cosgrove, the impressive rite ceremony being used. They were attended by Miss Marcia Shirey and Mr. Wilbur Stanton.

The bride was prettily dressed in white mohair and wore a white picture hat. Miss Shirey was attired in a charming gown of white. After the ceremony and congratulations, the young couple departed for their new home on Cedar street, where a course supper was served to the immediate family. Mrs. Shirey has devoted her time to the study of music, and was one of Newark's most successful teachers. Mr. Shirey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shirey of Twelfth street, and one of Griggs' most valued employees. The young couple have a host of friends who extend congratulations.

IT WILL CURE YOUR COLD.
Ajax Cold Tablets carries the cold off through the circulation, being just laxative enough to assist. It is not a physic. It stops the running at the nose and clears the head. It does not dry the mouth, has no action on the heart, has no unpleasant results and is in no way injurious. Take Ajax when you first notice your cold and it will vanish within an hour. Five or six doses will break up a hard cold. Physicians use it in obstinate cases of pneumonia. It sells for twenty-five cents.

THE BALLAD OF THE UGLY DUCKLING.
(By Jean Scholes, Newark)
There was once an ugly duckling,
And never a charm had he
To win the lady beautiful
Whom he loved faithfully
His eyes were of no color,
His tongue not smooth to talk,
His back was short and stubbed,
He wobbled in his walk.
And yet this ugly duckling,
Could sing a poet's song,
And strove with all his singing
To help the world along.
He sang, and yet in spite of it,
The lady loved him not,
And so he ceased his rhyming,
And died, heart-broke, I wot.

The Moors of Today.

The Moors of today are the descendants of those who conquered Spain, who were practically paramount in the southern portion for two centuries and relics of whose wonderful buildings are to be found at the present day in that country. Indeed, it is strange to consider the position of the Moors of today when we see the work of their hands in past centuries, and the only explanation lies in the fact that they are unable to adapt themselves to modern conditions. SHARP SKIRMISH WITH WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A band of militant delegates from the "Parliament of Women Suffragists," which is now in session in London, made a vigorous assault on the House of Commons a few days ago. Their attempt to rush the doors of the lobby, however, was frustrated by the police, who had a sharp skirmish with the shrieking women, 40 of whom were arrested for disorderly conduct. The attack had partly been trying to deliver to the House of Commons a resolution protesting against the "unconstitutional" action of the government in refusing a vote to women taxpayers.

BANQUET GUESTS
BECOME SICK

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 15—Something was exceedingly wrong with the culinary part of the Taft luncheon here. Nearly all the 600 guests at the luncheon woke up at 3 o'clock yesterday morning violently ill and did not sleep any more. Governor Warner, Mayor Thompson and various other celebrities say they wish they had not eaten quite so much, for they were all sick and many of them were unable to come to their offices.

As coffee and apoplinaris water were the only drinks served, the trouble, whatever it was, can be blamed only on the food. No really serious results are anticipated.

THE SCANDAL OF CORTELYOU.

(New York World.)

If President Roosevelt is sincere in his professed determination to destroy the alliance between "corrupt business and corrupt politics," why does he allow George B. Cortelyou to remain in his Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury?

Mr. Roosevelt knows Mr. Cortelyou's record as a collector of campaign tribute from the great corporations. He knows that Mr. Cortelyou took contributions from the great life insurance companies, from E. H. Harriman, from railroads, from national banks, from the Standard Oil Company. He knows that during the financial panic in New York Mr. Cortelyou practically turned the United States Treasury over to the Morgan, Rockefeller-Ryan interests and that through the medium of favored banks the money of the American people was used not to protect legitimate business but chiefly to safeguard the interests of stock-gamblers.

Mr. Roosevelt knows that through the encouragement which Mr. Cortelyou received from these eminent financiers he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. Does he doubt for a moment that Mr. Cortelyou is using his power and influence as Secretary of the Treasury to promote that candidacy? Yet although Mr. Roosevelt is opposed to Mr. Cortelyou's nomination, he allows Mr. Cortelyou to remain in the Cabinet? Why? Is it because the President is afraid to offend the great financial interests which Mr. Cortelyou has befriended, and which regard him as a good enough Secretary of the Treasury for them?

If Mr. Roosevelt wishes to destroy the alliance between Wall street and the government, LET HIM BEGIN

FIRST WITH HIS OWN OFFICIAL FAMILY.

As Secretary of the Treasury he has Mr. Cortelyou, who raised the Republican corruption fund in 1904 from the great corporations, who is administering his office to the peculiar advantage of Wall street, and who is a candidate for President with the encouragement of men whom Mr. Roosevelt denounces as "malefactors of great wealth."

As Secretary of State Mr. Roosevelt has Elihu Root, whom Edward H. Harriman has described as the brains of Thomas F. Ryan, that most audacious corporation wrecker and exponent of corruption.

As Assistant Secretary of State Mr. Roosevelt has Robert Bacon, the former partner of J. Pierpont Morgan who is still one of Mr. Cortelyou's expert financial advisers.

Are these the men that Mr. Roosevelt can trust to help him "prevent a repetition of the insurance, banking and street railroad scandals in New York"? Or to prevent "a repetition of the Chicago and Alton deal"? Or to prevent "a repetition of the successful effort of the Standard Oil company to crush out every competitor, to overawe the common carriers and establish a monopoly?"

Most people would instantly answer these questions in the negative. Most people would instantly reply that in the case of Mr. Cortelyou in particular his retention in the cabinet is a great public scandal.

Why does Mr. Roosevelt, who knows all the facts in the case, allow Mr. Cortelyou to remain? Why does he protect the very thing, the very system, the very institution, that he so frenziedly denounces? Has he forgotten that "words are good only when backed by deeds?"

A Reliable Remedy for the Whiskey and Beer Habit.

Very few men become drunkards because they like liquor. It is frequently the moderate drinkers, who, before he realizes his condition, has become a drunkard. The nervous system, having become accustomed to stimulants, is unable to do the same amount or quality of work without liquor, hence the victim drinks more and more. This is a state of disease and should be treated by Orin. It destroys the desire for liquor so that the drink is not missed. There is no loss of time or detention from work when it is used.

Orin is prepared in two forms: No. 1, the secret remedy, which can be used in food or drink without the knowledge of the patient. No. 2, for those who desire the remedy of their own free will. Both forms are guaranteed. A registered guarantee in every box.

Treaties on how to cure drunkards free on request. The Orin Co., Washington, D. C. The price of either form is $1 a box, making the cost of the complete cure less than one-tenth what is usually charged at sanitariums, with a guarantee that the expense will be nothing unless a cure is gained. Mail orders filled in plain sealed package on receipt of price.

Orin is for sale by Frank D. Hall.

COMING OF
BRYAN WILL BE
CHIEF FEATUREOF OHIO LEGISLATURE NEXT WEEK—SENATOR WILLIAMS WILL PRESIDE.

Republican House, Plays Petty Party Politics—Senator Meek's Charges.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—(Special)—Interest in next week's proceedings of the legislature centers chiefly on the coming of Mr. Bryan, Tuesday, to address a joint session on the subject of guaranteeing bank deposits. Mr. Bryan's visit to Ohio's capital at this time is taken advantage of by the Democratic state central committee which will meet here the same day to fix a time and place for the state Democratic convention. This also contributes further to the interest in the legislative banquet to be given Mr. Bryan at Memorial hall Tuesday evening. Senator Williams, who presides over the senate, and who will preside over the joint session Tuesday, will be the toastmaster at the banquet. His remarks introducing Mr. Bryan are limited to five minutes, and Mr. Bryan will be the only speaker. Purchasers of banquet tickets will be entitled to two tickets of admission to the balcony for friends, so that after the feasting Mr. Bryan will have an audience filling every part of the big convention hall.

Reference to convention hall is a reminder of the forthcoming Democratic state convention, which most likely will be held in this same hall. But the convention will not be held until after the legislature adjourns. A May date is talked of, for the legislature expects to reach final adjournment some time in April.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
Who Will Address the Ohio Legislature Next Tuesday, and be Guest at Banquet.

Fresh from the "victory" of the Taft forces in Cleveland, Congressman Burton came to Columbus to address an open meeting of the house committee on elections, Thursday night, on the subject of primary election reform. It will be remembered that Mr. Burton addressed the committee on this same subject two years ago. Mr. Burton was also a participant in the Taft primaries held Tuesday that were so fearfully and wonderfully made. Reasoning precept to example and back again, no man who figured conspicuously in the Taft primaries last Tuesday could well be regarded as competent authority to speak on the subject of primary election reform, except as a confessor, or as one warning the people to never indulge in another such fiasco. Mr. Burton spoke ostensibly in behalf of the Bronson bill, which the house will pass in preference to the Huffman bill which came over from the senate.

The passage of Senator Huffman's bill by the senate without a negative vote, after some amendments, was merely an acquiescence on the part of the senate opposing it to the bill becoming one of the vehicles which will go into the conference committee, along with the Bronson bill, for the final draft of a primary election act. The prospect is that neither Mr. Bronson nor Senator Huffman will recognize any of their original bills in the compromise measure that will come from a conference committee. When the legislature adjourned Tuesday was the primary election bill was left hanging "up in the air" on a peg driven into the blue sky, some leagues higher than the dome of the state capital. If party spirit runs as high as it did Thursday in the senate on Mr. Stockwell's street railway or veritable franchise bill, which was opposed from the Republican side as a slap at Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, that same peg will be needed this year for Bronson's primary election bill.

Republican leaders of the house made no concealment of their partisan animus against the Stockwell bill, aimed not so much at Mr. Stockwell as at Mayor Johnson. The vote stood 53 to 53 after a call and several recalls of the roll, and not another vote could be mustered on either side. Some of the members of the house finance committee were absent, visiting various state institutions, but others of the 14 not counted were either in the smoking room or got beyond reach and could not be induced to vote. The scene that followed has not been witnessed in the Ohio legislature for years. Representative Chamberlain of Dayton, the Republican speaker pro tem, was in the chair in the absence of Speaker Eagleson. Mr. Chamberlain not being as keen on parliamentary tactics as a more experienced statesman, got along smoothly enough until the cyclone struck him. He failed to recognize a demand for a roll call on a motion to adjourn, and was very promptly "called" by Representative Kealey of Cincinnati. After the defeat of the bill Mr. Stockwell changed his vote so as to be in position to move a reconsideration. But he was anticipated in that by a motion by Mr. Frizzell of Dayton to reconsider so as to kill the bill beyond possibility of resurrection by defeating the motion. That started the filibuster, and Mr. Chamberlain's troubles. Republican members openly taunted the Democratic side. Mr. Chamberlain's disregard of the demand for roll call on the motion to adjourn he explained afterward, when notice of protest was given by Mr. Stockwell, as due to being unable to hear on account of the confusion. There is where Mr. Kealey got in his fine work. He has a voice that could be heard in a saw-mill and when he said, "We don't do business that way on this side; I have a pretty strong voice, and if you didn't hear me before you hear me now." Mr. Chamberlain looked as though he wished he were anywhere except in Eagleson's chair. After that he was willing to recognize anybody, and a motion to adjourn made afterward was put to a vote and defeated. Then followed the defeat of the motion to reconsider, and the bill was killed because of party prejudice on the Republican side against Mayor Johnson. But it was not unanimous. Ten Republicans voted for the bill, Anderson, Bishop, Ervin of Meigs, Freimer, Grover, Hill, Huey, Lersch, Paine and Watson. Seven Democrats voted against the bill. Burckhardt, Judy, Miller, Nye, Pettit, Roberts and Smith of Wyandot.

So intense did party feeling run on the Republican side, which has been "playing politics" at every angle of the road this session, that the amity of the house may not entirely recover before final adjournment.

Although heretofore published in the city papers, it will not be out of order here to state what Senator Meek sets forth in his written charges on which the probing of the state school department is based. His charges specify:

1. That cliques and organizations have existed and do now exist in the school system for the state of Ohio for improper influence in the selection of such school officials and for other corrupt purposes; that such cliques and organizations are under the domination of bosses, who control said cliques for corrupt purposes in the state of Ohio.

2. That state school certificates have been improperly and irregularly issued by the state board of school examiners of Ohio; that members of said board have trafficked in such certificates, or issued or promised to issue the same in consideration of receiving employment as lecturers before teachers' institutes in said state, or on other improper grounds and considerations.

3. That members of said board of state school examiners of Ohio have insulted lady applicants for state school certificates in said state with immoral and licentious proposals, while said lady applicants were being examined by said board of state school examiners, for the purpose of obtaining state school certificates in said state.

The committee will hold its first open session and begin the taking of testimony next Monday at 9 o'clock, and will have an all-day session, if the witnesses hold out. It was decided at the meeting of the committee to have two attorneys of opposite politics to represent the committee, so as to make it clearly a non-partisan investigation.

The Rose county option bill will not come to a vote in the house next week. A hearing on the bill will be held Monday night by the house committee on temperance, and probably another hearing Wednesday morning, preceding the committee's report that day or the next. It is understood to be the purpose of the committee to report it as it came from the senate and to allow no amendments of any kind to creep into it. If it were to take its regular place on the calendar it might not be reached for two or three weeks, but it is expected that a motion will be made to make it a special order for Feb. 27. There seems to be a great desire on the part of the Republicans to get the bill passed before the Republican state convention, if possible so as to re-leave the party of putting a county option plank in its platform.

Senator Mather, of Akron, introduced a bill giving saloon proprietors who have been voted out, the right to bring action against the inhabitants of such territories for being deprived of the beneficial uses of their property, the damage question being left to the court. How such a measure would fit in with county option is a problem.

WOMAN'S POWER

The healthy woman; strong mentally and physically; whose ambition and magnetic influence urge men to deeds of grandeur and heroism; such women are all-powerful. Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND has been saving women from this awful condition.

St. Louise Jung, of 332 Chestnut St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I suffered from a very severe female weakness for a long time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restored my health. I hope it will do other women as much good as it has me." Mrs. Emma Wheaton, of Vienna, W. Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was a walking shadow. My husband insisted upon my writing to you and trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. It relieved all my pains and misery, and made me a very different woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

Medicine That is Medicine.

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kiestler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. "Wiggan's Gold Mine"

"Derby's Kidney Pills."

Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich. Gentlemen:—I have been using your Kidney and Liver Pills for some time with great results. They have done me worlds of good. Many thanks to you for I had been troubled for years with my urine. Sometimes would just dribble from me and I would have to get up three or four times every night. Now that is all over; my urine comes as strong as it did when a young man, although I am 56 years old. My wife has just come in with another box of the Derby Kidney Pills; that makes the ninth box I have bought. I can never praise them enough. I tell everybody that is troubled as I was, about them.

Yours very truly,

WATERS

Of South Fork and Raccoon Creek Rose Rapidly This Morning—No Danger of Flood.

The waters in the North and South Forks of Licking river and in Raccoon creek were decidedly above their usual stage this morning and for a time residents in the vicinity of the streams expected a flood. From 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock the water in Raccoon creek rose eight inches and in the South Fork the water rose at the rate of an inch an hour.

When the rain commenced falling in torrents about midnight and continued intermittently until morning, the people along the river banks kept a close watch on the water and when morning came some of the things stored away in the cellars and lower floors of the houses were moved to the second story rooms and to the garrets.

While all danger is thought to be past now, a watch is being kept on the waters and an alarm will be given if they show any signs of running over their banks.

"I believe every man should put his best foot forward," remarked an emphatic person. "I don't," the mild little man: "I'm a chiropractor."

Odd Fellows.

Newark lodge No. 623, I. O. O. F. conferred the first degree last Monday night on a small class of candidates. Thursday night Newark lodge degree team went to Hebron, conferred the second degree on three candidates in a pleasing manner, for Williams lodge. Monday night we will confer the second degree on a number of candidates. All Odd Fellows are invited to come and witness the degree work. We have the very latest designs which make it more attractive. We have several new applications for membership.

Mr. Olive Encampment No. 12, I. O. O. F., meets the first and third Thursday nights of each month. Mr. Olive is surely on the boom. We have 20 applications for Thursday night to refer to the committee on investigation. We will confer the Patriarchal degree next meeting night on a class and the Golden Rule degree also. We anticipated securing 100 new members during the year of 1908. We have now over 50 new applications. At this rate, Patriarchs, we will have that number by July 1. We will have a grand blowout in March. Watch for the date.

Knights and Ladies of Security. The regular meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security met on Friday night, February 12, with a good attendance. District Deputy J. S. Mackey added a number of names to the membership on the occasion of his visit here early in the month. The interest and attendance lately have been good.

The Old Maids' Convention, a most entertaining in charge of about 20 of the ladies of the lodge, will be given on next Friday evening, February 21. The entertainment promises to be one of the best local entertainments of the year. The ladies have been giving the production a great deal of attention and the costumes of "Ye Olden Time" will be worth seeing. The entertainment will be in the Modern Woodmen hall. Dancing free at the close of entertainment.

American Insurance Union. Newark Chapter, No. 24, A. I. U., met in regular session Thursday evening with the usual good attendance. The marshal found one candidate waiting to be instructed in the teachings of the order.

A. P. Irwin of South Second St., has been confined to his home with the grip. Also E. J. Deardurf of Buckingham street.

The next regular of weekly dance will be given next Thursday evening, Feb. 20. This dance will be of the leap year variety and promises to be an enjoyable event, as the ladies never fail at anything they attempt. Refreshments will be served. Stevens' full orchestra will help entertain.

Modern Woodmen. Cedar Camp, No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America, met in regular session Monday night with a good attendance of the members. One application for membership on transfer card was received and elected to membership. One stranger was found in the forest and shown through the mysteries of Woodcraft.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Neighbor John A. Albright, who died on January 30, reported and the report was received and adopted.

The managers and chief foresters were instructed to purchase new uniforms for the Forester team to go to the head camp at Peoria, Ill., next June.

The next dance of the Foresters' team occurs on Thursday night, Feb. 20, and a large crowd is expected. Numerous requests have been made to the team that they put on a fancy drill at the next dance and the team has decided to do so.

An invitation has been sent to the officers and team of Buckeye Camp, No. 3224, of Zanesville, Ohio, to visit Cedar Camp on the night of March 5 and put on the work and if the invitation is accepted, neighbors, we want to show them a good time. It has been some time since Buckeye Camp has visited Cedar Camp, and we want to renew the old time fraternal spirit which has always been shown by these two camps. On that night a lunch will be served, prepared by Neighbor A. S. Mitchell and his committee, consisting of a first class order stew and the trimmings.

Knights of Pythias. The officers of Johnstown Chapter No. 16, of R. K. of P., were elected at a regular convention of the company held at Castle Hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 12. The result of the company's ballot for officers for the coming year was an election as follows:

Captain--H. A. Bishop.
First Lieutenant--F. M. Preston.
Second Lieutenant--C. M. Ross.
Recorder--B. F. Carter.
Treasurer--R. C. Frederic.
Guard--John Tyler.
Sentinel--H. L. Sanford.
Chaplain--Emmett Lewis.
Commissary--D. L. Palmer.
The last four were appointed by Captain Bishop.

Following the election of officers and a drill preparatory to inspection and installation, the company was invited to the banquet room, where without doubt one of the best lunches that had been served over the tables at that place was enjoyed by the company. It was prepared by Sir Knights D. L. Palmer and W. E. Bates. The lunch consisted of Denver sandwiches, raisin and mince pie, pickles, cheese, cakes and coffee.

The company is in good financial condition and is getting to be a company of well drilled men and very pleasing to the officers in charge. Johnstown Independent.

Things in Pythian circles are booming up in Johnstown. The Independent says:

On the evening of Oct. 10, 1907, at a regular meeting of White Cross lodge No. 308, K. of P., it was decided to have a contest for new membership, the lodge to be divided into two parts, one side under the leadership of M. D. Shrader, the other under that of A. W. Ogle, the contest to close with the first meeting night in February. The side victorious in securing the most new applications for membership during the period of time to be banquipped by the losing side, at a time and place to be decided upon later. At the meeting Thursday night of last week, February 6, a committee was appointed to make the official count, which was as follows: Forty-four petitions were secured, which includes applications for initiation, reinstatement and by card. M. D. Shrader's side secured 24, and that of A. W. Ogle 20, Shrader winning by four petitions. When these new members shall have been given their Knight rank old White Cross will have a membership of at least 280 full fledged Knights in good standing and as the writer is a member on the losing side, will say that the winning side will be treated to a nice supper in the near future and with pleasure equal to what there would have been should our side have won the victory.

Roland lodge No. 305, K. of P., on next Tuesday night will confer the Esquire rank. On Wednesday night Roland lodge will observe the 44th anniversary with an entertainment and banquet for Knights of Pythias and their wives in the hall. A splendid time is assured by the committee in charge.

Hay Makers. The Hay Makers met and completed arrangements for the big Hay Make on next Tuesday evening. Twelve candidates will furnish the fun for the evening. A large delegation is expected from Cambridge to witness the cutting of the hay with the new machinery.

Red Men. Minnewa Tribe met last night with a good attendance. Two brothers were reported as unable to follow the hunt. Four adopted brothers were admitted and instructed in the Warriors' degree. Next Friday night the chief's degree will be put on after which refreshments will be served.

Ladies' Auxiliary to St. John. The Ladies' Auxiliary No. 27, K. of St. J. of this city, held a regular meeting at M. W. of A. hall Thursday evening, February 13, when a large class of candidates was initiated into the order. During the evening addresses were delivered by Fathers Watterson and Plunkett and Miss Carrigan, president of the Newark lodge, and Miss Emma Oshe, president of the Zanesville lodge. A large number of the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John of Zanesville, came up to attend the meeting. A banquet followed the initiation and the guests spent the remainder of the evening in dancing. The Zanesvillians came up to the city on the interurban and returned on the B. & O. with the exception of Mrs. Mörkle, Miss Clara Horn and Miss Emma Oshe, who will visit here for a few days. Those from Zanesville who were in attendance were Mrs. F. E. Hemmer, Mrs. Frank Merkle, Mrs. Lizzie Dunaweller, Mrs. Albert Armbruster, Mrs. T. L. Rock, Mrs. Harry Orr, Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Gertrude Gilger, Mrs. W. F. Heene, Mrs. George Roll, Mrs. Emma Mulvey and Mrs. Day. Misses Katie Sherry, Clara Horn, Lizzie Factor, Lena Goettler, Mabel Adams, Eva Hupp, Carolyn Fuller, Emma Fuller, Francis Hoffer, Jennie Hoffer, Pennie Bell, Mary Joyce, Rose Joyce, Vera Joyce, Ida Hornum, Mary A. Carr, Anna Ludy, Catherine Devol, Cecelia Emmert, Elsie Pyatt, Margaret Musselman, Fleurance Oshe, Emma Oshe, Cora Bollinger, Susan Peters, Sophia Merkle, Lizzie Schrellber and Minnie Lenham.

Masonic. At a regular communication of Center Lodge F. & A. M., it was decided to hold a special in connection with the regular communication on Friday, February 21. The special will begin at 2:30 p. m. at which time work will begin upon four candidates for the M. M. degree. District Lecturer A. L. Rawlings of Newark, will be present on this occasion to inspect the lodge. Johnstown Independent.

K. O. T. M. George H. Scott, major general of the Uniform Rank, Knights of the Macabees, will be at the Hotel Warden Tuesday evening, February 18, at 7:30. Mr. Scott will be here with a view to organizing a Uniform Rank in this city. All Macabees are requested to be present at this time to confer with Mr. Scott in this matter.

Eagles. The Eagles have changed their place of meeting from the A. I. U. hall to the K. of P. No. 13 hall over Griggs' dry goods store.

Last Tuesday evening they celebrated the 10th anniversary of the founding of the order. The committee in charge of the entertainment deserves great credit for the hard work they necessarily had to do, to give the members of the order the best social session they have had since its organization.

President George H. Hamilton entertained the members with a discourse on the founding and growth of the order, and fraternal orders in general, showing in what respect the Fraternal Order of Eagles is superior to any and all fraternal organizations. During the elegant banquet which was served, the orchestra discoursed sweet music. After the banquet a number of gentlemen who are at the Orphium theatre this week entertained the brothers by rendering the respective acts which they perform on the stage.

The Eagles will initiate a class of candidates on the 25th of this month.

Madrid and its Climate. Along the Mediterranean shore Spain presents a narrow ribbon of fertile, delightful country. The region is often called "the garden of Spain." It is a great contrast to pass from these tropical shores to the wind swept plains of interior Spain. The level country inclosed by the Guadarrama and the Cantabrian mountains forms in the west an extensive wheat growing region. Toward the east as the rainfall decreases pasture encroaches upon arable culture. In New Castile, on the south of the Guadarrama and in about the center of Spain, the political capital has been placed. The level country in which it has been dropped, as if by accident, is for the most part a waterless plain, swept in winter by the piercing winds from the naked mountains of the north, sweltering in summer under the effect of the sun's rays on bare rock and soil.

The climate of Madrid has been tersely described by its inhabitants as "three months of winter and nine of hades."

Meeting of Baseball Directors Held Last Evening--Uniforms for Season Discussed.

An informal meeting of the directors of the Newark Baseball club was held Friday evening and baseball matters talked over. The question of the purchase of tickets was discussed and was finally referred to Secretary Hopkins. The matter of a ground keeper was also taken up but nothing was done.

An interesting discussion then arose regarding the uniforms for this season. Nothing definite was done and no particular color was decided upon, but at a meeting that will be held next week, the question will probably be settled. Nothing has been heard lately from Manager Bob Berryhill, and Frank Maurath, business manager of the local club will telephone him tomorrow at his home in Lebanon, Ind., to find out "what is doing."

A committee will be appointed to canvass the business men to see about signs on the fence and the score cards, and this has in the past proved a good medium of advertising, so the committee will probably have easy work in securing the patronage. The question of season tickets for both men and women was talked over but nothing was done in the matter towards arranging for the price of the annual pastebards. It will not be a hard proposition to sell them, for all the games can be seen at a decided saving to the purchaser.

Newark wants baseball, and good baseball, and the directors are determined she shall have it, so with a little co-operation on the part of the fans a fast season is assured.

THE FAN MOLL.

At a meeting of the Lancaster baseball company Thursday night, Dr. James Davidson was elected president. Dr. J. J. Silbaugh, vice president, W. D. Nohacker, secretary, and J. H. Zink, treasurer.

South Bend of the Central is bound to have a winning team this year and Owner Bert Annis has already spent $6,000 in lining up men for the summer.

Lancaster has signed two more men--Williams, an outfielder, and Townsend, a first baseman.

HORIZON

IS BLACK FOR FANS OF EASTERN SECTION FOR FIVE CLUB LEAGUE SEEMS LIMIT.

SMOOTH SAILING IN OHIO STATE

President Bob and Local Managers Quietly Making Arrangements For Coming Season.

The few warm days the first of the week have made the fans in the eastern section of the state sit up and take notice, and as far as they can see the baseball horizon is a blank for them. Erie can't get away from her team mates and the best the eastern teams can figure on is a five club league, and they don't like that a little bit.

They are up against it good and hard, and unless luck changes they will not have the baseball they thought they would when they wanted to drop the westerners. While Canton has joined yet the Canton News doesn't see much hope for the league and as the time for opening the season draws nearer the fans are wondering where they are "going to be at."

The Ohio Sun says the easterners can be compared with the young fellow who went snipe hunting with a party of humorists. They are still at the edge of the thicket holding the bag. All of which goes to show that when you have a good league, you'd better let well enough alone. It does not pay to get gay.

Meanwhile, things are humming along quietly in the Ohio State and nothing seems to be in the air but convictions that there will be a successful season. President Bob is looking after his end of it in a satisfactory way and the local managers of the various clubs are making every preparation.

Several umpires have been signed yet President Bob says he needs a new letter file for all the applications for the berth of ump in the Ohio State. He hasn't filled his slate yet, and won't give his verdict in the matter until he has had a chance to try out thoroughly all the men who have applied to him.

Managers of the various teams will begin putting their parks in shape as soon as settled weather comes, and when the ump calls "Play ball" everything will be in tip top order for the season. Just what will be done at the Wehrle park in the way of improvements has not been fully decided upon, but the matter of a grass diamond is being seriously considered.

Fans and players alike favor this improvement and whether the season of 1908 will see a green infield here or not is not known, even to the managers themselves.

is to learn as to the relative strength and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in, scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implications. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

A Simple Cough Cure Home-Made

Here is a simple recipe that is a good scrap to cut out and paste in your scrap book. It will make one pint of the most effective cold and cough remedy that any physician could give you. Here it is:

Granulated Sugar..... 1 1/2 oz.

Pinex 2 3/4 oz.

The Syrup is made by heating and stirring Granulated Sugar and Water. The 2 3/4 oz. of Pinex may be had of any good druggist at a cost of 50 cents. Mix in a pint bottle. Shake well, and take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours as required.

Pinex might be called the concentrated ozone of the Norwegian pine forests, famous for centuries in curing consumption, asthma and kindred membrane diseases. It is, as a matter of fact, the purest and most concentrated form of compound extract of Norway white pine tar.

There are many pine tar or pine oil preparations, but none of these are to be compared with the pure Pinex itself. All druggists have it or can get it easily if requested to do so.

INSPECTOR

From Dairy and Food Commission Looks After Meat Markets and Slaughter Houses.

On account of several complaints that some meats sold in Newark are not up to the standard, the local health board had Special Inspector Johnson of the State Dairy and Food Commission's office here Friday. The day was spent inspecting meats, fresh, salt and pickled, in various places, both at meat markets and at the slaughter houses. Everything was found to be satisfactory along the meat line, and the fact that came under the inspector's hand was found to be above suspicion.

One thing that will be insisted on however, is that all meats shall be covered and not exposed to dust, dirt and the "pesky little fly." This will be a source of satisfaction to housekeepers and the board is taking the right steps to protect the citizens from the different diseases that lurk in dirt, and are carried by flies.

After today people selling milk and cream on market will have to have the same permits that dealers and dairy owners are required to purchase. Buttermilk can be sold without the permit. The health officers have been busy the past few days issuing milk permits and very few people have not taken them out. They have been given far warning by the department that these permits are required and if any person is halted before the mayor it will be his or her fault.

The milk sold in Newark is being analyzed constantly and it has been found to be above the average sold in other cities.

OBITUARY

CHARLES PETREY.

Charles Petrey, aged 53, one of the best known machinists in the city died at his home, 35 Wilson street Saturday morning at 2 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks' duration. Tuberculosis was the cause of death. Mr. Petrey was born in this city on October 8, 1852, and began learning his trade at the old Schneider-McNamar machine shops here at the age of 18 years. After the dissolution of the firm he continued with Mr. McNamar, rightfully claiming the title of a first class mechanic. He was a member of the Royal Arcanum and was identified with St. Francis de Sales church, where the funeral service will be held on Monday at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his wife, formerly Susan Kenan of Somerset, O., to whom he was married in 1872. To them were born the following children, who survive: Officer Charles C. Petrey, F. D. Sherrard, Mrs. Emily Berkshire, Mrs. Margaret Bolen and Mrs. Ella Caldwell. Also Mrs. John Kemp, a sister, and four brothers, William, George, John and Fred, survive.

LEWIS EVANS.

Died at Highland, Cal., February 9, 1908, Lewis Evans, aged 84 years and four months. Mr. Evans was a brother of Mrs. Daniel Thomas and Mr. Williams T. Evans of this city. After the death of his wife some years ago, he went with his daughter and family to Highland, Cal., where he made his home up to the time of his death. The remains were brought to the old home in Danville, Iowa and placed beside those of his wife and several children. Mr. Evans leaves one daughter, Mrs. Hendrickson of Highland, Cal., and one son, Dr. John Headly Evans of Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Evans was a veteran of the Mexican war. About 20 years ago, he visited his relatives and old acquaintances in Newark and attended a meeting of the Mexican veterans at Mt. Union, O. He was much respected by all who knew him, was a life long member of the Congregational church, faithful to his God, to his family and his country.

EX-STUDENTS

Of Old Utica Normal Will Hold Reunion on Washington's Birthday.
Senator Houck to Speak.

The reunion of the students of the normal school at Utica, which was conducted there by Prof. Harris prior to 1883, and now a resident of Nebraska, will be held at the Christian church in Utica on Saturday, February 22, instead of on Friday, as started in yesterday's Advocate. A number of the old pupils are expected to attend the reunion which will be the same as was held ten years ago. A number of Newark people attended this school, among others being Tom Rutledge, W. C. Seward and James H. Moore.

Senator L. B. Houck of Mt. Vernon, will deliver an address.

RUMOR GROUNDLESS

Report of Boiler Explosion at Furniture Factory Proves to be a Fabrication.

"I believe that somebody is trying to injure our business or give us an unnecessary amount of free advertising," remarked a member of the Newark Ohio Furniture company, of South Sixth street, when approached by an Advocate man Saturday morning and questioned regarding a reported boiler explosion at the company's plant.

It seems that there have been a number of groundless reports circulated regarding accidents and other occurrences said to have taken place at the factory. Saturday's report had it that the engine boiler blew up. A few weeks ago somebody started the report that the company had discharged over half of its employees, and later, probably from the same source, came the word that the factory was running all night.

The officers of the concern plead "not guilty," and accredit the rumors to someone's very fertile imagination.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Newark. Scores of Newark people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Amos Frey, Toboso seven miles east of Newark, O., says: "I have been entirely free from kidney trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me over eleven years ago. Prior to that time I suffered severely from pains through the small of my back and loins which were always aggravated by the least exertion. If I sat in one position for any length of time, my back became so sore that I suffered untold misery. I used several remedies, but the relief obtained was slight and I continued to grow worse until I was in a serious condition. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were highly recommended for complaints similar to mine, I procured a box at Crayton's drug store. They acted just as represented, going directly to the seat of my trouble and ridding me of all pain. I have always highly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills and deem it a pleasure to do so whenever an opportunity presents itself."

Ladies' Princess Wrapper, No. 633. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. The handsome gown of blue broadcloth (226-995) shows the popular fancy for things Oriental in the short, wide Japanese sleeves. They are prettily caught up on the shoulders by straps fastened by ornamental buttons, which are also used in the decoration of the waist. This stylish overblouse will be found very useful as a separate waist to wear over the dainty lingerie blouse, or it may form part of a costume. The five gored skirt is a graceful model and one of the newest of the season. The top is tucked to deep yoke depth, except in the front, which is left plain in panel effect. The circular flounces add a becoming flare to the lower edge, which may be in medium sweep or round length. The design would be excellent for voile, taffeta and satin cloth. For 36 inches bust measure 1 1/2 yards of 4 1/2 inch material will be required for the waist, and 8 1/2 yards for the skirt.

Ladies' Circular Skirt, No. 5771. Sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure. This illustration calls for two separate patterns. The gown pictured (5882-5771) will appeal to the woman who makes her own gowns, because of the simplicity of the lines, yet there is an air of elegance to the model which renders it pleasing to the woman who would be with dress. The over-blouse is made with front, back and sleeves in one piece, the only seam being in the sleeve under the arm. The kimono sleeves carry out the wide armhole styles to perfection, and are quite in harmony with broad shoulder effects. The skirt is a circular model and is exceedingly graceful and attractive. The present development was of chiffon broadcloth but any of the materials that drape nicely are appropriate, such as cashmere, voile, pongee and taffeta. For 36 inches bust measure 1 1/2 yards of 4 1/2 inch material will be required for the over-blouse, and 4 1/2 yards for the skirt. Ladies' Over-Blouse, No. 5882. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. This illustration calls for two separate patterns. Patterns will be sent to any address on receipt of ten cents each, by Marjorie Dane, 43 West Thirty-fourth Street, New York City. To avoid delay, do not fail to state size of pattern desired, and be sure to write name and address plainly.

Party Frocks for Children

Styles in party raiment for children are almost as pronounced these days as the modes prepared for their elders. The dainty little frocks and suits which were in style a year or two back, little dresses that suggested Kate Greenaway, or tiny silk costumes for girls and Lord Fauntleroy velvet suits for boys, have quite disappeared. This season the party frocks for little girls are almost invariably of wash material, made on simple designs and trimmed like their elder sisters' gowns in as much handwork as the home-sewer can execute. The boys, on the other hand, wear much more mannish suits, and as soon as a boy steps from the white pique and flannel stage, he has his smooth finished, dark cloth suit for afternoon parties and a dress suit with tuxedo coat, just like Papa's, for evening wear. These diminutive dress suits are simply irresistible, and make the boys blessed with grown-up possessions look delightfully grown-up. With the dress suits go plain white shirts with tiny standing collars and white ties, to say nothing of black patent leather pumps, and the patent coat, just like Papa's, for evening wear. Very few Empire styles are offered for small girls, despite the effort made to popularize them. The most prevalent designs are the French frock, with long waist and single or double flounces, and the yoke dress with or without a bertha, according to the build of the wearer. The stout girl should never be urged to wear a bertha, while for the thin, angular girl it is just the thing. It is on the bertha, yoke, neckband and tiny sleeves that most of the handwork appears. The skirt sections are apt to be quite plain, or finished with scallops, insertion or hemstitching.

Another striking feature of the boy's appearance at parties this season is the mannish cut of his hair. Curls are not worn even by boys of four or five. The boy or square cut so popular last season has given place to a short cut with the part on the side, precisely like a grown-up's, and it goes without saying that this state of affairs greatly pleases the youngsters, who from the moment they realize what is expected of masculinity by other members of their sex, hate curls, "bangs" and other girlish treatment of the hair.

And, while on this topic, a little warning to the mother of the little moon-faced girl. Do not box her hair, cutting it straight and even all around her head, chubby face. It exaggerates her plumpness and detracts from her beauty. The thin child can stand this style of cutting and dressing the hair, but for either stout or thin girls, braids or curls are much more becoming. Do not draw the hair back tightly, to bring the features into undue prominence, but fluff it lightly make a soft suggestion of a pompadour by fastening it on the top of the head with a fluffy bow of ribbon. Then either curl the back hair or leave it loose and brush the two braids with bows to match that on the pompadour. If the hair does not curl naturally, do not use the iron, but curl it in the hair slightly with alcohol and wind on racks over night. When dressing the child for the party, brush the curls over your finger and they will be most effective. Do not wash with water. This is apt to make the hair smell musty or sour.

But to return to fashions proper. The combination of white hostery with black slippers is much seen. Little girls wear both patent leather and headed kid slippers. Only very wee tots under five wear stockings and slippers in pale pink or blue. Wash fabrics lead everything else for making little party frocks, and more embroidery than lace is seen. When lace is employed at all it is as a section to set off a strip of hand-stitched or hand-embroidered, and is very

Personal Daintiness in Children

The busy mother is very apt to let her children go their happy, care-free way if they are healthy and reasonably clean. Tommy is taught to scrub his hands before coming to the table, and Bessie to do her hair fresh. If Tommy's hands are chapped and Bessie has a succession of cold sores or chapped lips, the mother is very apt to say that is the way with children. But, oh, when an invitation to a party comes and Tommy's hands look like little scarlet nutmeg grates, and Mother finds that he has bitten his nails to the quick, how these defects do show up in connection with the best suit, particularly if it happens to be black velvet. And no amount of ruffled lace or delicate ribbons will hide the fact that Bessie has an extremely coarse complexion and bleeding lips.

Normal children should not be burdened with professional beauty treatments. There is no reason why they should be pink like delicate plants to insure a pious and white complexion and soft, ladylike hands, but there is every reason why they should be taught to treat with exquisite care the wonderful bodies given them of God. And what is more, if they are not taught this, if they are permitted to acquire untidy personal habits, which end in physical defects, the mother may be quite sure that she will be reproached for her carelessness when they realize their loss.

With a party invitation before you, dear mother, and with a week in which to take grace, many of these small defects can be remedied. Truly, an invitation of this sort is a powerful weapon with which to appeal to the careless and to those chapped hands or girl. First and to blowy little boys or girl. Wet the hair first with warm water, then take about two tablespoons of this soft soap and rub it thoroughly into the scalp with a small brush. Massage it well into the scalp and through the hair with the tips of your fingers. Rinse in several waters that are quite warm, and finally in one cold water, which will prevent the child from taking cold. Dry in the sunshine. This process should be gone through at least once a month. Children have tender skins as a rule, and yet mothers are very apt to scrub the little faces with soap and water and send them out to play. Think of such treatment in connection with your own skin! If the children are going out at once after washing, use warm water with plain unscented soap, and then rub a little cold cream into the skin. One of the most valuable adjuncts in acquiring a generally good complexion in youth is that of eating oranges in quantities. Let the mother give her children two or three oranges every day, as they possess many virtues, especially upon the action of the liver. The mother who buys plenty of oranges for the children will note a reduction in her medicine bill. Look well to the teeth of the little ones. I do not know why it is, but almost without exception small children dislike to have their teeth cleaned with vaseline or some healing pomade. With children's hair, as with that of their parents, shampooing at frequent intervals is a necessity, yet this is something which many mothers are prone to neglect. I knew of one woman, the mother of several children, who washed the heads of her children just once a year! Think of it! Perhaps the most nourishing and safest shampoo for nourishing is made as follows. Melt a cake of pure castile soap in a quart of boiling water. This can be bottled and kept for months at a time. Wet the hair first with warm water, then take about two tablespoons of this soft soap and rub it thoroughly into the scalp with a small brush. queens and beauties of history used just such gloves. Appeal to the child's imagination and love of romance. Don't, I beg of you, tell a child she must wear these gloves because she has been a naughty, naughty girl. Try the influence of the word "good" instead of "bad," of "do" instead of "don't."

For the little "do" girls who will take off their mittens and come in with chapped hands, the following pomade is very healing. Cocoa butter, 1 ounce; oil of sweet almonds, 1 ounce; oxide of zinc, 1 dram; borax, 1 dram; oil of bergamot, 6 drops. You should heat the cocoa butter and the almond oil in a double boiler until well blended, then add the zinc and borax, stir them together until quite cool, and add the bergamot oil last. Rub this on the hands at night before slipping on the gloves. Watch the finger nails of the youngsters. If they bite them, put a little arnica or some harmless bitter lotion on their finger tips. The very painful hangnail is prevalent among children. These should be cut by the mother with a very sharp nail scissors, then rubbed with vaseline or some healing pomade. do not allow a child to middle with its face—a habit many children develop. Many mothers argue that they hate to be "ragged" at a child all the time. Better nag a little now than to have a child, grown to womanhood, rebuke you for neglect.

Party Manners for Children

"Party manners!" Do you remember how your busy mother, or your elder sister, tried to instill party manners into your youthful head, between the time Annabel Brown sent out invitations for her birthday party and the day this wonderful event occurred? All the while Mother dressed you, she was making remarks that were so much Greek to your mind, and each one began with a "Don't."

You left her presence flustered with good resolves. You meant to behave, but when you returned to the maternal presence and were bombarded with anxious questions, you had to confess that you had a fight with Annabel's cousin George, who tried to steal a corner on you when "Puss in the Corner" was the game, and you had eaten three plates of cream, when you had been properly warned not to take more than one, you had filled your small pockets with bonbons just because there were so many on the table, and you had raced away, after it was all over, without telling Annabel's mother that you had enjoyed yourself. And so you went to bed with an ache in your stomach and maternal disapproval hanging over your head. But really, it was not your fault. It was the mother's fault and the older sister's. Busy though they may have been, they ought to have known what mothers-to-day are beginning to realize, that there should be no such things as company or party manners. The boy or girl who is ill-mannered at home will be ill-mannered at a party. The one who gives instructions will go in one ear and out the other.

"Party manners" must be daily manners in many respects. There are a few points of juvenile etiquette which arise only at parties, but children can be easily schooled in these by playing "party" at home. I knew a gentleman who felt very keenly the fact that his children enjoyed fewer social opportunities than had fallen to her lot in childhood, but she never lost hope of their being invited to the homes of her wealthier neighbors some day. And so at frequent intervals she would have a game of "calling" or "party." One of her children would be host or hostess, and the others the guests. She would set forth a little table with animal crackers, fruit, sandwiches and broken candy for the treat, and the children thus learned to act with ease the appropriate roles of host and guest. As a result when the "real, for-sure" party came into their lives, and they attended affairs, arrayed in the simple but pretty raiment which their mother had wrought by lamp-light, their manners were a matter of comment among the older folk present that afternoon. Among the things they learned was to remove their wraps carefully, making sure that the hair was neat before leaving the dressing room. Next, they knew they must go direct to the parlor and find their host and his mother. They were taught at home every day in the year not to scramble roughly in games played in the house. They waited to be served at the table, and to see that those around them were served. And when the "play party" was over, they all stopped to tell mother what a good time they had.

Yes; this takes time, but it also takes time to run tucks, sew on lace, recall pretty hair and polish small shoes. Why not take the same amount of time to polish small manners? A great many grown-ups do not realize that children make mistakes through nervousness and fright, when they find themselves in strange environment. The nervous, self-conscious child should never be sent to a party alone, even in the afternoon. Let some member of the family, or a servant accompany the child, who is torn between joyous anticipation and fear of facing so many strange boys and girls. If it is a large and formal, should take the child to the house, accompany her to the dressing room, remove her wraps, set every hair and button straight, and then start her on her way. Then, after inquiring the parlor door, when the party will break up, the servant or sister, who, and does not return until the hour named, when the mother takes the child for the street, after making sure that the little guest has not forgotten to say good-bye to the mother of the host.

The mother of the host can also save children no end of misery by being left at the parlor door to receive each new comer. Some mothers do not think this necessary—children will take care of themselves. Indeed, this is not so! Children are less able to make their entrance into a room full of guests than their elders.

When refreshments are served the mother, aided by members of her family, and particularly the little host and hostess, should see that each child is marshalled for the feast. I have known a small guest who was comparatively strangers in a corner of the room, to slip in shadows, corners during the supper hour and get nothing to eat.

Pleasing and Diverting Games for Youthful Guests

In the larger cities, amusing youthful guests at parties has become a fine art, and one at which bright young girls make quite comfortable incomes. Sometimes these girls take entire charge of parties for children, from getting out the invitations to buying, and placing the feast. Again they arrange the amusement features only, sometimes adding to a gift for leading different games, the delightful art of telling stories that hold children spellbound.

When a party is to be given for the younger members of the family circle, and a professional entertainer is beyond the family purse, then the older girls can show real talent in helping to plan the function which is the event of the year to the smaller fry. Nowadays a few refreshments and one or two little games do not constitute a children's party. Plans are laid as carefully as for a card party or dance for the older folk. Prizes are provided and above all things, the methods of amusing are not left to the last moment with unshaken faith in an inspiration to be furnished by the children themselves. Children who are splendid leaders of outdoor playgrounds become perfectly paralyzed and stupid when called upon to entertain a group of turned loose in a parlor. There are a number of old-fashioned games to which the present generation has never been introduced, and they are worth trying at your next juvenile gathering. For instance, there is what your mothers used to call "Hitting the Pig," a most inelegant title, but a trial of skill which all children will enjoy. Spread upon the floor a big square of paper, or a sheet, and suspend from the ceiling or the center of an opening for folding doors, directly over the middle of the covering an ordinary paper bag filled with tiny pretzels and animal crackers, popcorn and broken or clear candies. Have the string long enough so that the bag will swing easily. Place a child about six feet from the bag with his eyes blind-folded. Place in his hand a stout cane, turn him around three times and bid him take four steps forward and then hit the "pig." Nine chances out of ten he will strike in directly the opposite direction, and all the children will shout with glee. He has three chances and failing to burst the bag, must add the stick to some other child. When the stick bursts, the child who strikes it is the winner, and the children are permitted to divide the contents of the bag.

Several of these bags will be required, and they should be low enough for all the children to have a fair chance. Prize games of all sorts appeal to children, and for these prizes read the five and ten cent stores. You will be surprised at the number of pretty, little things you can pick up for five cents, from rubber balls and whistling balloons for the little tots to nice painted boxes of dominoes etc. for those a trifle older. A variation on the old fishpond idea is this. Cover a clothes basket or tub, or large bowl according to the number of your little guests, with tissue or other thin paper in which small holes have been cut. Through each hole run a string. These may be of different lengths and colors, and the end of each is attached to a small prize or present in the receptacle. Each child chooses his string, but can judge nothing of the prize to be drawn by the length or thickness of the string, and then, when they all pull together the paper covering first into a hundred pieces, and out pop the prizes. Another game for which only two prizes are provided, is the peanut hunt. For the little peanuts in every conceivable place on the lower floor, behind pictures in the tuffing of

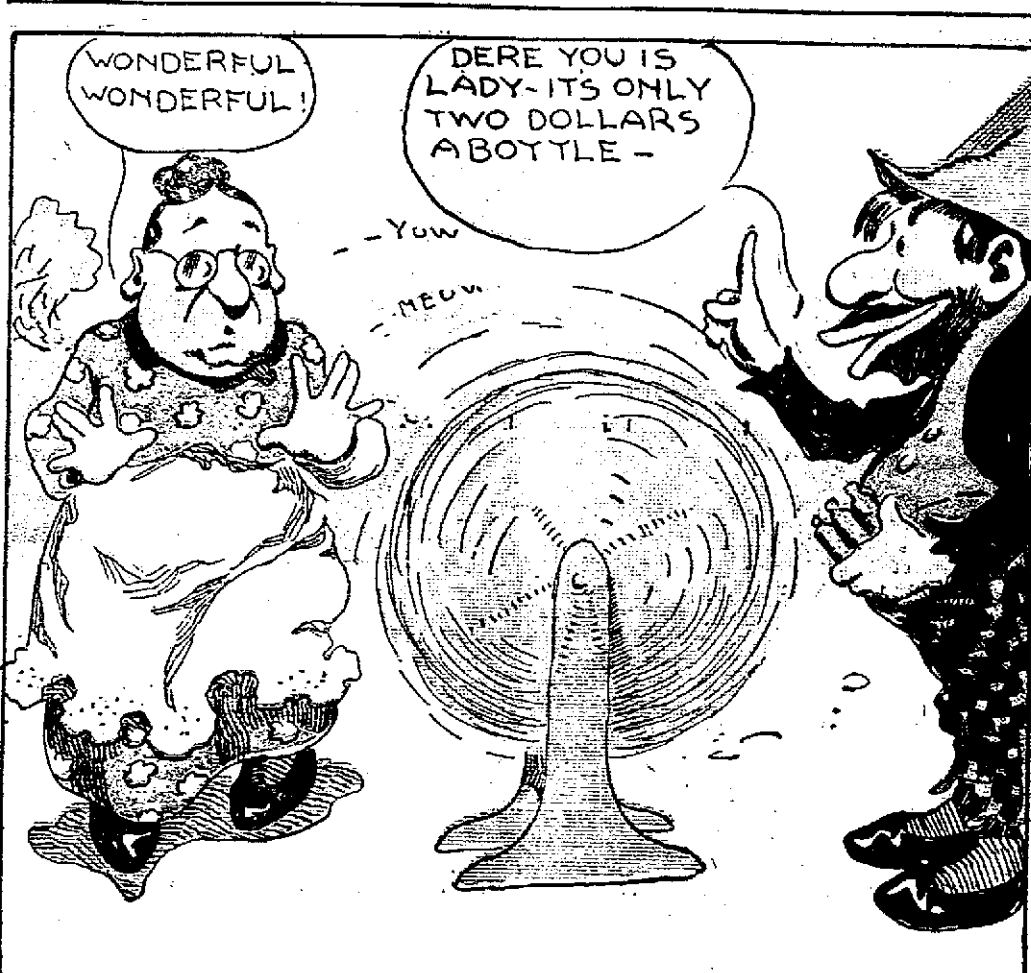

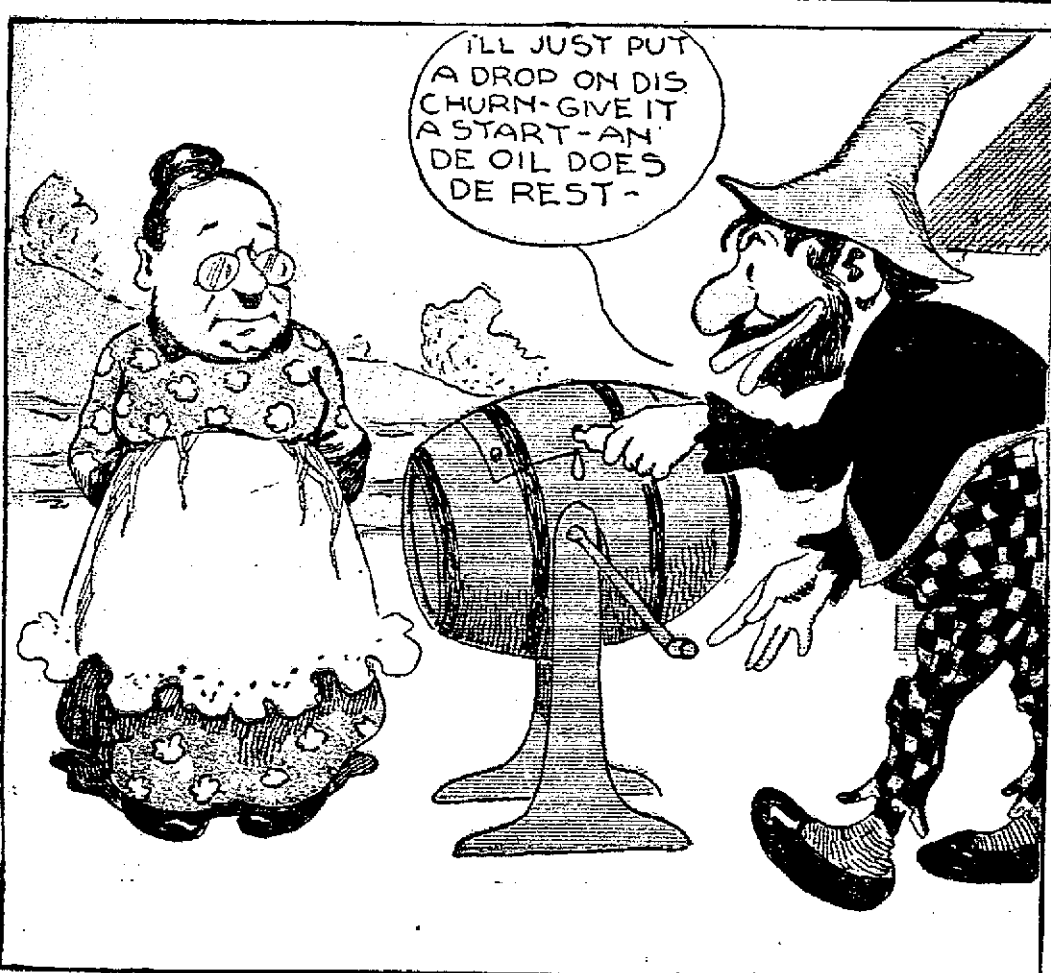

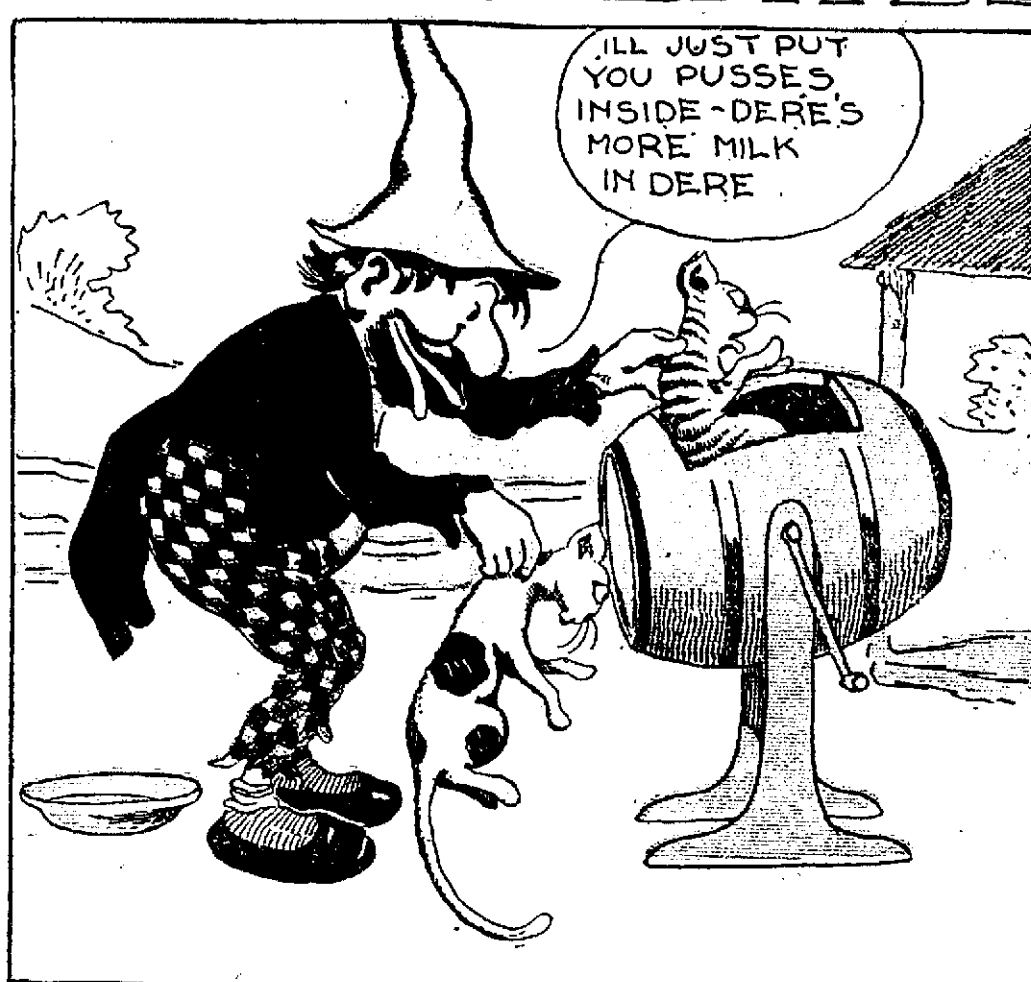

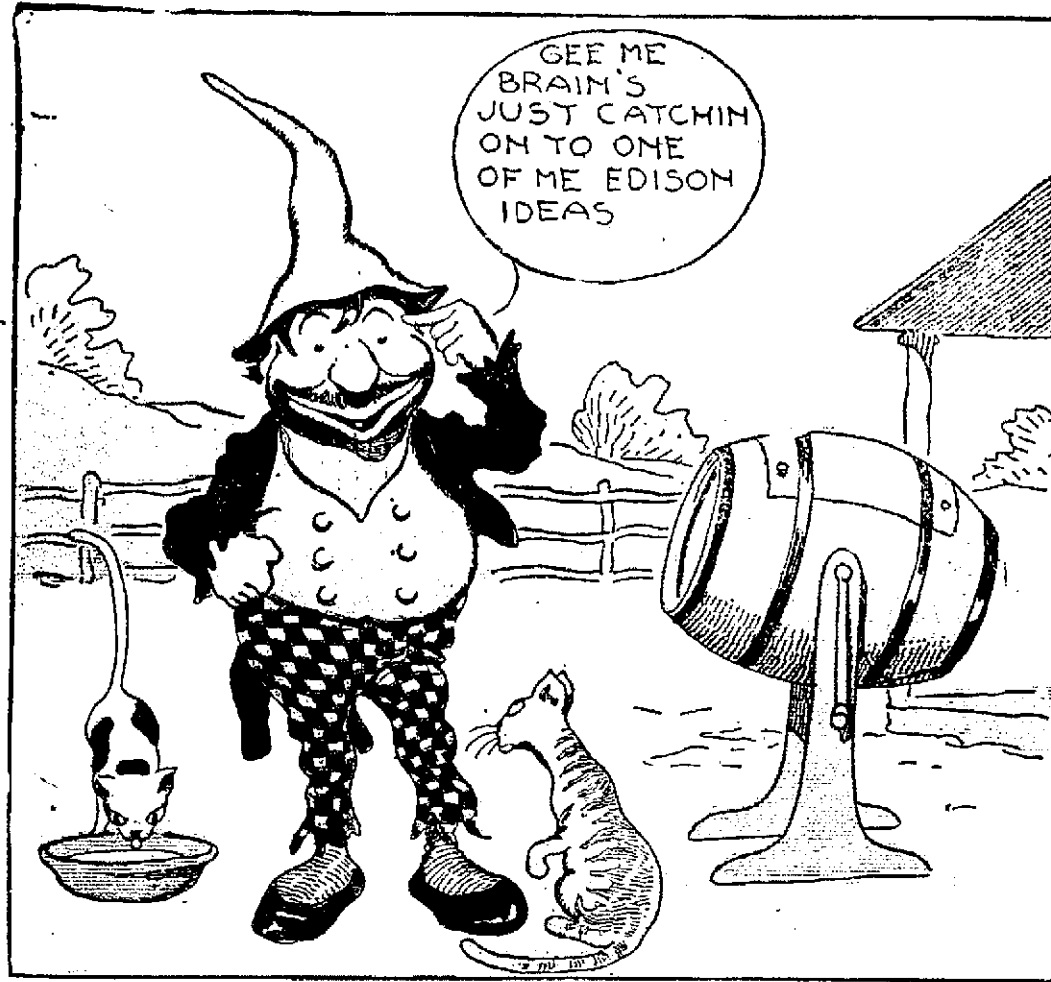

GRAPE FRUIT

To properly prepare grape fruit, it should be placed on the ice or in some very cold place for at least 24 hours before eating. Cut it through the center with a sharp pointed knife. Run the knife around the edges next to the skin, loosening the fruit from the outer skin. Remove all pits and with the same sharp knife, cut out the core of the fruit, so that nothing remains but the delicious pulp. Cover with powdered sugar and put on ice for another half hour. It is then ready to serve. The addition of a tablespoon of rum and three or four cherries is very tasty if you do not disapprove of liquors.
